Best things

about spring?

Best legume

Fresh peas

This is pea season. They're so sweet that they need only a brief boil and then a touch of butter or olive oil. Eat 'em with fish, chicken, or steak.

Best mushroom

Morel

They're earthy, light, and simple to cook. Halve a few and throw them into a pan with a little butter and some thinly sliced shallots. Serve with fish or eggs.

Best green vegetable

Asparagus

Drizzle on some olive oil before roasting; grate on some Parmesan after. It's the perfect seasonal side for grilled chicken, salmon, or steak.

Fresh foods!

The top three to eat right now, according to David Myers, chef of Comme Ça in Los Angeles

Golf season!

The top 3 new clubs to improve your game, from Colt Sport, owner of MyGolfSpy.com

3 Nead Custom Putters

Many "tailor-made" clubs offer only some customization. These putters are truly yours: Tweak the head weight, the clubface, the grooves, the grip color, and more. Plus, they're gorgeous.

2 Ping K15 Irons

Golf is hard. These clubs make it easy. According to MyGolfSpy's tests, this line provides some of the best course-corrective technology for less-than-ideally-hit balls. They're great for beginners.

1 Adams Speedline 9064LS Driver

It's rare to have a club test well for both distance and accuracy, but this pick is an absolute rocket. Use it to gain huge yardage off the tee and make your buddies stare in awe.

The best tip for better drives

"Tee the ball high. Too low and you'll lose out on a high launch, low spin, and big distance."

Rickie Fowler, 2010 PGA Tour Rookie of the Year
